2nd Batch of AIDE TP Course on Theater Acting for Self-Actualization graduates

2nd Batch of AIDE TP Course on Theater Acting for Self-Actualization graduates

Last September 8, 2019, the 2nd batch of enrollees, composed of thirteen (13) students, who took the AIDE-TP Course on Theater Acting for Self Actualization marched and received their Certificate of Completion at the Cultural Center of the Philippines (CCP).

The program was spearheaded by TP-AIDE Academic Program Coordinator for Acting Course, Mr. Remus Villanueva. Tanghalang Pilipino (TP) Officials, Fernando “Nanding” Josef, Artistic Director and Ms. Carmela Millado Manuel, Company Manager were the Special Guests.

Given the success of the Pioneer batch, who are now doing valuable artistic things to propagate their love for their craft, the 2nd batch immediately succeeded. The classes were held at CCP Silangan Hall which run from July to August 2019; a total of 8-week sessions were purposely allotted to deliver the course. Prior to this, a free workshop was conducted by Mr. Remus Villanueva in the months of June and July 2019.
